

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. With five corporations owning the majority of media outlets in our country, our democracy is at risk. I call on you to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you for your attention.